UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMMES AND ADMISSION PROCEDURE

1.0 BACKGROUND

The University of Dar es Salaam (UDSM) is the oldest and biggest public university in Tanzania. It is situated on the western side of the city of Dar es Salaam, occupying 1,625 acres on the Observation Hill, 13 kilometres from the city centre. It was established on 1st July 1970, through Parliament Act No. 12 of 1970. Recently, the Universities Act No. 7, of 2005 repealed Act No. 12 of 1970 and all the enabling legal instruments of the constituent colleges. Prior to 1970, the University College, Dar es Salaam had started on 1st July 1961 as an affiliate College of the University of London. It had only one faculty – the Faculty of Law, with 14 students. In 1963 it became a Constituent College of the University of East Africa together with Makerere University College in Uganda and Nairobi University College in Kenya. Since 1961, the University of Dar es Salaam has grown in terms of student intake, academic units and academic programmes.

2.0 STUDENT INTAKE

The number of students admitted at the University of Dar es Salaam has been increasing steadily, from 14 in 1961 to 16,468 (10,200 male and 6,268 female) undergraduate degree and non-degree students in the 2009/2010 academic year. Female students constitute 38% of all undergraduate students at the University of Dar es Salaam. Since then the number of admitted students has remained constantly stable.

3.0 ACADEMIC UNITS

The University of Dar es Salaam had eight campuses until June 2007 – UDSM Main Campus, the then Muhimbili University College of Health Sciences (MUCHS) (since 1st July 1991) located within the Muhimbili National Hospital in Dar es Salaam, the then University College of Lands and Architectural Studies (UCLAS) (since 1st July 1996) located adjacent to the Main Campus, the then Faculty of Aquatic Sciences and Technology (FAST) (since August 2002) located at Kunduchi in Dar es Salaam, Institute of Marine Sciences (IMS) (since 17th October 1978) located in Zanzibar, the then Institute of Journalism and Mass Communication (IJMC) (since 1st July 2003) located at Mikochoeni in Dar es Salaam, the Dar es Salaam University College of Education (DUCE) (since 22nd July 2005) located at Chang'ombe in Dar es Salaam and the Mkwawa University College of Education (MUCE) (since 22nd July 2005) located in Iringa. However, UDSM now has six campuses after two of its constituent colleges – the Muhimbili University College of Health Sciences (MUCHS) now the Muhimbili University of Health and Allied Sciences (MUHAS) and the University College of Land and Architectural Studies (UCLAS) now the Ardhi University (ARU) became fully fledged universities on 1st July 2007.
