Do you have a business idea related to agriculture or food technology?
Join us at the Agripreneurship Business Idea Event!

CBFSR/UDBS and CoAF at UDSM and the Centre for Entrepreneurship of Technische Universität Berlin, Germany are organizing the Agripreneurship Business Idea Event for UDSM students with early-stage ideas in the field of agriculture and food technology. Students will get the chance to present their ideas and receive feedback from UDSM and TU Berlin professionals, their peers and external guests. TU Berlin and UDSM will provide a mentorship package to the team with the most innovative idea. It is a great chance to network as well! Join us!
