

The African Graduate Fellowship

The American University in Cairo (AUC) - Fall 2017

The Office of Graduate Student Services at The American University in Cairo (AUC) is happy to announce the opening of the African Graduate Fellowship for Fall semester 2017, open to all African (non-Egyptian) nationals in any field of graduate study available at AUC!

The fellowship offers full coverage of tuition fees, a monthly stipend, student services and activities fee, a housing allowance for non-residents of Cairo or residence at the University dorms, and medical coverage and health insurance fees. The award is valid for two years.

Applications need to be submitted to a graduate program at AUC FIRST, and THEN, submission of the fellowship application comes as a second step. The deadline to apply to AUC is February 1, 2017. The deadline to apply to the fellowship is February 15, 2017.

Fellowships start Fall semester 2017. The language of instruction at AUC is English.
