POSTGRADUATE PROGRAMMES AND ADMISSION PROCEDURES

1.1 Introduction

DPGS was established in 1981 as one of the departments under the office of the Chief Academic Officer (CACO). The directorate was, made up of three sections, namely, Staff Development (SD), Higher Degrees Office (HDO) and Links and Projects (L & P). In view of the rapid growth of the postgraduate programmes and students, it was transformed to an effective graduate training institution in 2006 which was latter reverted again to DPGS so as to match the currently existing University of Dar es Salaam Organizational Structure.

The Directorate of Postgraduate Studies (DPGS) is a main support and connection office for postgraduate students of the University of Dar es Salaam located on Five Different campuses/constituent Colleges, namely Mwalimu JK Nyerere campus popularly known as Mlimani main campus (JKN campus), Dar es Salaam University College of Education (DUCE), Mkwawa University College of Education (MUCE), Mbeya College of Health and Allied Sciences (MCHAS) and Institute of Marine Science (IMS). DPGS provides professional support services to all (including international) postgraduate students during the postgraduate lifecycle (from application to graduation). The DPGS have prepared this publication in order to give you an overview of some important issues in relating to the feasibilities of postgraduate studies application procedures at the University of Dar es Salaam (UDSM).
