

Mr. Joseph Masangula, a 2nd Year LL.B. student at the UDSoL emerged the overall 2nd best student in the Eastern African Region and the 1st in Tanzania at the just concluded 20th Session of the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) Essay Competition for East African Universities, 2022. The Competition, on International Humanitarian Law, attracted 47 Law students from a record 107 submissions from 47 Universities in 7 different countries spread across the region.

(For information on the Competition see: <https://blogs.icrc.org/somalia/wp-content/uploads/sites/99/2022/04/EN-20th-IHL-A2-Essay-Competition-Poster.pdf>)

The Top Ten students drawn from the 47 Universities that took part in the Competition: -

1. Kenya, Kenyatta University
2. Tanzania, University of Dar-es-Salaam
3. Ethiopia, Addis Ababa University
4. Kenya, Kabarak University
5. Kenya, University of Nairobi
6. Kenya, University of Embu
7. Somalia, Mogadishu University
8. Uganda, Nkumba University
9. South Sudan, Starford International University
10. Rwanda, Kigali Independent University

We congratulate Mr. Joseph Masangula for the well-deserved achievement and for keeping the School's flag flying high. Congratulations!

Dr. S.F. Materu
DEAN

21st September 2022